AFFAIRS IN BROOKLYN.

EPISCOPALIAN MINISTERS IN CONFERENCE A missionary convention of the Northern Arch-deaconry of Brooklyn was held yesterday in Holy Trinity Episcopal Church, on the Heights. Bishop Littlejohn administered the communion. Archdeacon Morrison presided. Addresses were le on the needs of Church work by the Rev. Dr. McConnell, of Philadelphia; the Rev. Dr. R. F. Alsop, Bishop Littlejohn, and Archdeacon Morrison, at the morning session. Luncheon was served at 8t. Phoebe's Home. The afternoon session was devoted to the work of deaconesses. The chief speaker was the Rev. Dr. W. R. Huntington, of New-York. Last evening a large audience assembled in the church. The Rev. Dr. W. S. Rainsford, of New-York, spoke on the subject: "Is the Church Doing All That Can be Done for the People?" He said that property in church pews should be abolished, formalism in liturgy should be done away with, and ministers should be more devoted to their work. They should not, for one thing, think of marrying the first thing after they began to preach. Dr. McConnell, of Philadelphia; the Rev. Dr. R. F.

NAUGHTY BOYS ANNOY A SINGER.

Miss Laura S. Groves, a well-known church-choir who has sung much at public entertainments, has suffered a great annoyance from rude boys in the neighborhood of her home, No. 287 Jefboys in the neighborhood of her home, No. 287 Jefferson-ave. They have called her "Little Butter-cup," from the part she has sung in "Pinafore," and have frequently adjured her "to get off the perch," "shut the slats" and perform other feats of an acrobatic character. She became so much annoyed finally that she decided to seek profection from the courts. Yesterday she had Allen Jackson. Edward Allier and Thomas Remsen taken before Police Justice Connolly, who lectured them severely for their conduct. They promised to behave themselves, and Miss Groves expressed herself as fully satisfied that she would not be annoyed any more. Miss Groves sang for several years in the Washington Avenue Baptist Church.

AN INSULTER OF WOMEN RIGHTLY SERVED. A young woman, who said her name was Mrs. Laura St. Gordon, was annoyed by the offensive conduct of a man who sat near her in a Fultonst, restaurant on Tuesday evening. As she rose to st. restaurant on Tuesday evening. As she rose to leave the place he spoke to her, and she slapped and scratched his face. The man sprang up, and applied an opprobrious name to her, and an elderly man went to her aid and struck the offender with his cane. Mrs. St. Gordon made a complaint to the police, and a detective found that the offender was Nathan Ward, who manages a billiard parlor, and that the defender of Mrs. St. Gordon was Peter K. Deyo, of No. 60 Putnam-ave. Mrs. St. Gordon was advised to secure a warrant for the arrest of the man who insulted her, but she did not appear at the Police Court yesterday. She refused to leave her address until she had consulted with her husband.

The inquest in the case of Max Kelling, who shot himself in the head at No. 62 Putnam-ave. on Tuesday night, showed that he committed deliberate suicide. He had left his wife and six children and had gone to board with Mrs. Marie Heman, with whom he was in love. She is a pretty Rus man, and showed more favors to some o her other boarders, especially to a Russian count than to Kelling. Despairing of gaining her affec-tions, Kelling shot himself. From his diary it appears that he had planned to do this on January 9, but decided to do the deed two months earlier. Jacob Hawskurst, employed on the Brooklyn Ele-

NEW-JERSEY.

INDICTMENT AGAINST A DETECTIVE. three indictments on Tuesday afternoon, and yes. leaked out that three of them had been procured by ex-Sheriff Stanton. One is against Detective Goode, of Hoboken, who is charged with assaulting Henry Schmelke, a bartender. The last Grand Jury ignored this charge, and it is alleged Grand Jury ignored this charge, and it is alleged that Mr. Stanton procured the indictment against Goode because the latter did important service for Mayor Fagan in carrying Hoboken for Sheriff. Toffey in the recent election. This Mr. Stanton denies. He says he has no animosity against Detective Goode, and does not think that the detective had any influence on the election. On the other hand, Mayor Fagan acknowledges his debt to the officer, and openly charges that the indictment was procured for revenge,

Sheriff Toffey entered upon the duties of his office yesterday. He was warmly congratulated by a host of friends, among whom were many ministers. There was also a delegation of 300 residents of North Hudson, who presented to him a floral horseshoe. The presentation was made by William Hoffman, and Sheriff Toffey warmly thanked the donors for the gift and for the support they had given him in the campaign.

NEW-BRUNSWICK.
IN MEMORY OF SOLDIERS AND SAILORS. The Soldiers' and Sailors' Monument, erected by the citizens of New-Brunswick in memory of the soldiers and sailors of the late war, was dedicated vesterday with appropriate ceremonies. The day was made a local holiday, and all places of busiwas made a local holiday, and all places of business were closed. An imposing civic parade took place in the morning. The entire 3d Regiment of the National Guard of New-Jersey had been ordered out by Governor Werts, and was in the city all day. At sunrise, and again at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, the gun detachment of the regiment fired a National salute. The exercises attending the unveiling of the monument took place at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. The Grand Army posts of the city surrounded the monument, the school children sang two patriotic songs, an address was delivered by John N. Carpenter, of New-Brunswick, and the monument was unveiled by Miss Emma, Way, daughter of the late Major Alexander M. Way. At the Opera House, in Masonic Hall, further exercises were held at 4 o'clock. A poem was read by Dr. David Murray, and an eloquent oration was delivered by General James F. Rushing, of Trenton.

Seated on the platform were Judge William Walter Phelps, ex-United States Minister to Germany; General E. Burd Grubb, Adjutant-General William A. Stryker and Quartermaster-General Richard A. Donneily, of the New-Jersey National Guard, Governor Werts was unable to be present. In the evening the deed for the site of the monument was transferred to the city and accepted by Mayor Van Cleef. A dinner closed the exercises of the day.

WEST HOBOKEN. SHE THREW VITRIOL ON THEM. Some time ago Caroline Schneider, of No. 414 Monastery-st., West Hoboken, brought suit against Gustav Bremer for betrayal under promise of marsince then frequently asked Bremer to repair the wrong he had done her, but he denied that he had ever wronged her. On Tuesday evening, while Bremer was in a butcher-shop on Spring-st. Miss Schneider entered it, carrying a small pitcher filled with vitriol. She tried to throw the stuff over Bremer, but only partly succeeded, though she burned one side of his face and his neck pretty badly. Some of the stuff also fell on Mary Koeller, of No. 466 Central-ave., and Mary Criel, of No. 490 Spring-st., and they also were severely burned. After having their wounds dressed at a drug store, the two women obtained a warrant for the arrest of Miss Schneider, but the officer could not find her. The young woman's mother said she had gone to New-York.

ELIZABETH

County Clerk James J. Gerber, of Union County, died suddenly from apoplexy yesterday afternoon in his bath room at his home, in Cherry-st., Elizabeth. He was attacked just as he entered the room, and in falling struck his head against the room, and in falling struck his head against the bathtub, which brought on a hemorrhage. He only lived about ten minutes. Mr. Gerber was forty-two years old. He was born in Elizabeth, and was one of the most popular men in the county and city. He entered the office of Surrogate Clark in 1872, and served five years as his assistant. In 1877 Mr. Gerber was chosen Surrogate, and served ten years in this capacity. He was defeated in 1887 for a third term by George T. Parrot, the present incumbent. Last year he was elected County Clerk for five years.

ANNUAL CONVENTION OF THE NATIONAL LEAGUE.

HARMONIOUS MEETING-THE ASSOCIATION FREE FROM DEBT FOR THE FIRST TIME

IN YEARS - AMENDMENTS ADOPTED. The corridors of the Flith Avenue Hotel were throngel with baseball men yesterday, from the millionaire, dramon l-bedecked, fur-coaled club owner to the more numble player and umpire. As usual, the baseball men held full way, and for once the loungers and politicians we biting winds outside. It was the annual convention of the National Baseball League, that august body which controls the destinies of the game in this country. the wars are over and as there is no rival in the field, the convention, which will last through to-day, promises to be a remarkably harmonious one. The dispute over the gate-receipt question in Philadelphia is the only topic which will cause any serious cont ove sy, and even that will be settled to-day without any bloodshed. The circuit will remain as it is, as Cieveland will not retire, and, in consequence. Detroit will not be admitted. The Eastern and Western League idea was not even discussed.

The Board of Directors not in secret vession at noon, awarded the pennant to Boston, and granged the usual routine matters. The treasurer's report showed that the entire indebtedness of the League, $140,000, had been wiped out, and that the organization would next year start out with clean pages for the first time in years. The $140,000 indebtedness was brought about in settling up the war with the American Association, and the club owners are as happy as school children over chasing away this bugaboo, which has hung over them since that famous Indianapolis meeting.

The delegates to the regular convention, which was dent, were as follows: E. B. Talcott, New-York; C. H. Byrne and F. A. Abell, Brooklyn; A. H. Soden and W. A. Conant, Boston; C. Von der Ahe, St. Louis; W. W. Kerr, Pittsburg; Frank de Hass Robison, Cleveland, Green, Pittsburg, Frank de Hass Robison, Cleveland, Green, Pittsburg, Frank de Hass Robison, Cleveland, Frank de Hass Robison, Cleveland, Green, Pittsburg, Frank de Hass Robison, Cleveland, Green, Gre W. Kerr, Pittsburg; Frank de Hass Robison, Cleveland; J. George Ruchstuhl, Louisville; H. R. Vonderhorst, Ealtimore; John I. Rogers and A. J. Reach, Philadelphia; John T. Brush and N. A. Lloyd, Cincinnati; B. L. Wagner and J. S. Elliott, Washington, and James A. Hart, Chicago. Cornelius Van Cott, John B. Day, George Wagner and J. Walter Spalding were present in an unofficial capacity.

E. B. Talcott is making every effort to get the foreign stockholders in the New-York club to dispose of their hold as he should. The reading of the minutes of the las meeting was dispensed with, and the report of the Board of Directors was read and accepted. Amendments were made to sections 44 and 47 of the constitution. Section 44 refers to the lending or exchanging of players during the playing season, and any club violating the rule will be fined $100. Section 47 refers to transferring games, and this is amended so that any club or clubs violating and this is amended so that any club or clubs violating this section shall be amenable to a penalty of $1,000, this to apply to the clubs so playing. The penalty must be paid within forty-eight hours to the treasurer of the League, or if not, to be withheld from any funds to their credit in the hands of the trea urer. All games played in violation of this rule shall not count in the champonship series. This puts a stop to the transferring of games, as was done by the Washington club so extensively last sea-

The amendments offered by Mr. Robison regarding disvere referred to a committee which will be appointed by Mr. Young to-day. The proposed amendments to the suggested to all clubs to send such amendments to this cummittee, and all amendments and suggestions to the playing rules will also be sent to this committee.

The new Board of Directors elected is as follows: A. H. Soden, E. B. Talcott, C. H. Byrne, J. A. Hart, W. W. Kerr and John T. Brush, with President Young as ex officio member. The board is equally divided between the East and West, and there will be no friction. N. E. Young was appointed a committee of one to The National Board, which is the board of to meet again at 10:30 this morning. Clark, the pitcher was signed by Manager Ward for the New-York Club.

SHOES TO SUIT EVERY TASTE.

The old saying, "There's nothing like leather," is strikingly illustrated by the handsome and varied exhibit of footwear for men, women and children now made by the firm of Edwin C. Burt & Co., at its spacious retail headquarters, Nos. 70 and 7 West Twenty-third-st. There are many beautiful and artistic designs to be seen there. Among them are women's walking boots of French calfskin made on Piccadilly lasts, and with broad soles and low heels. Women's boots with cork soles are als made on the same lasts. A popular new woman's boot is a button-boot of patent leather, foxed, with a deep, straight tip and seven large buttons of m greater size than formerly shown. The same style of boots is also made in French kid and calfskin. The prices in the different styles range from $5 to $7. The display of fancy slippers for women is especially attractive, and includes many slippers of exquisite design in glace kid and satin, of all colors The men's department, on the second floor, is also is fitted with the neatest designs of men's shoes The extreme pointed toe is still much in vogue but there is also a great variety of shoes with broad toes for those who seek comfort rather than fashion Edwin C. Burt & Co. have had thirty-three years' experience in the shoe trade in this city, which experience in the shoe trade in this city, which thoroughly qualifies them to cater to the needs of the public. Their fine exhibit at the World's Fair, Chicago, won for them the "Blue Ribbon" prize which they with just pride place with their numerous medals and other awards of merit won by them at Vienna, Paris, Philadelphia, New-Orleans and other cities where exhibitions were held. A Chicago journal said of Burt & Co.'s exhibit at the World's Fair: "All honor is due to those leading representatives of the shoe trade, Edwin C. Burt & Co., for their supreme efforts in making such a fine exhibition of their productions."
